

THE ARTS COMMISSION

Thursday, September 16 • 6 PM - 10 PM

For The Art Lover

Join us in supporting artists who are passionate about celebrating life through art. Enjoy an impressive line-up of scheduled short films, animated films, and live performances. Explore large-scale installations, colorful murals, and our extraordinary public art collection.

Promenade Park Schedule

- 6 PM      Live Pop Up Mural Painting begins featuring Mercé Culp, Connor Ryan Degnan aka CON TRON, Ken Dushane III aka PHYBR Camille Isaacs, Maude, Chris “Chilly” Rodriguez, and Matt Taylor
- 6 PM      Poetry Readings curated by Jonie McIntire featuring Dan Denton, Lydia Ferguson Horvath, Jodie Summers
- 6 PM      The Holding Project by Barbara WF Miner, Ashley Pryor Geiger, and Lee Fearnside
The Holding Project is a living artwork that includes community voices focused on feelings about safety. At Momentum, the artists will ask people to participate in this project by writing, drawing or doodling responses to questions about perceptions of safety. These responses will be incorporated into a large-scale, concertina book structure that will be exhibited in several locations, including the Toledo Museum of Art Library, the University of Toledo's Carlson Library, and the Main Library of the Toledo Lucas County Library in spring of 2022.
- 6:30 PM      Dancin' In The Streets videos presented by The Arts Commission's Art Loop program featuring WE R HIP HOP, Courtney Draper, UT Jalwa, Mawtini Dabkeh Troupe, THE Modern Dance Company, and The Aegela Center for Middle Eastern Dance
- 7 PM      Supernova Regeneration - Daybreak presented by Denver Digerati

This program offers some of the most pleasing animations for all audiences, think of it as fun for the whole family, with some grand artistry thrown in to hit a wide variety of notes. The Animations represent artists from around the world, pulled from Supernova's signature programs including; Kid Wonder, Student Shorts Showcase, Bodies in Motion, Abstract Sonic, Abstract Experimental, Director's Choice, the annual Competition along with a program dubbed: Post Covid Stress Disorder. All are a good transition from the end of the workday into an entertaining evening of visual splendor.

8 PM Poetry Readings curated by Jonie McIntire featuring Dan Denton, Lydia Ferguson Horvath, Jodie Summers Audamatik, Della Della, Huntor Prey

9 PM Supernova Regeneration - Nightfall presented by Denver Digerati

Things start to become a little more surreal and sensory with Nightfall, perfect for when the sun has gone down and the spirit goes a little wild. The selected animations amplify some of the most distinct attributes of digital tools and the aesthetics promoted in the hands of pioneering artists. Animations in this program represent the broad spectrum of Supernova's signature programs. Nightfall includes the most recent music video from this year's Solo Artist Spotlight featuring: AUJIK, an entity based in Japan, whose work is an outstanding representation of the Regeneration theme.

8 PM Debut Community Screening of "Sons of Toledo" short documentary presented by Glacity Theatre Collective followed by a Q&A with the filmmakers and featured barbers

SONS OF TOLEDO After waking up to an early morning phone call giving him the news his brother was killed, a Toledo barber navigates the obstacles of his day before going to the funeral home that night to give the young man his final cut.

The film was born out of the stories of Toledo's Black owned barber shops and the ProMedica Men's Health/Barber Shop program. It features community centered stories with community sourced actors and was created through the generosity of ProMedica, Barb and Randy Oostra, Turning Row LLC, Robin Charney, Glacity Theatre Collective and the Arts Commission.

Friday, September 17 • 6 PM - 10 PM
