Toledo's Arts + Culture Festival

September 8 and September 15 & 16

N. Superior St. between Madison Ave. + Adams St.

Know Before You Go

Momentum is a free festival hosted by The Arts Commission and featuring over 100 local visual, performing and literary artists. This year's festival is September 8, 15 + 16 on N. Superior St., between Madison Ave. and Adams St.

Tips + Tricks to Enjoy Momentum

Bring your refillable water bottle! Toledo Water Conditioning has generously provided free filling stations for the event.

Food trucks will be available for guests to enjoy each night of the event. Most food trucks accept both cash and card.

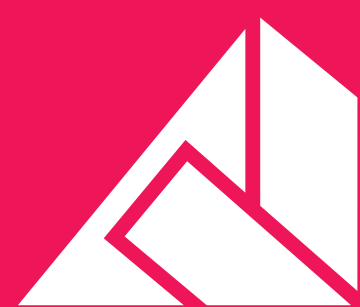

The Arts Commission is hosting The Bar in 319 N. Superior each night. Guests can purchase drink tickets for beer, wine and seltzers (ages 21+, ID REQUIRED), soda, or Gatorade - CARD ONLY ACCEPTED FOR DRINK TICKETS.

Visit The Arts Commission Merch Counter in 321 N. Superior to purchase limited edition t-shirts, koozies, wine openers, and more! CARD ONLY ACCEPTED.

Off-site Activities: Don't miss the Film Exhibition (Valentine Theatre) and the Momentum Intersection Exhibition (Toledo Museum of Art Glass Pavilion)!

Visual and performing artists will be active indoors and out. Explore the space! Most exhibition areas are accessible to those with limited mobility.

If you need for an accommodation, contact The Arts Commission at 419-254-2787, THealy@theartscommission.org or via Facebook or Instagram Messenger. Please note, staff will have limited availability to respond during event times.
